Couples Club Becomes 'Arm' Of Park Avenue Synagogue

The Couples Club has become the newest affiliated 'Arm' of the Park Avenue Synagogue family by unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees at its May, 1987 meeting and invites members of the congregation to join the group.

The Executive Committee of the Couples Club has been meeting over the summer to pre-plan the coming year with events and activities which will be inviting, interesting and stimulating.

The kick-off event of the year is a Before the Holidays dinner, catered and Kosher, on Saturday night, September 12 at 8:30 p.m. at the home of Doris and Jerry Dainow. The club has invited Rabbi David H. Lincoln and his wife, Susan; Rabbi Harlan J. Wechsler and his wife, Naomi; Cantor David Lefkowitz and his wife, Joan; Cantor Mark Kula; and our Executive Director Barrie Modlin and his wife, Leah. This will be a festive evening of renewing friendships and making new friends.

In October the Club will co-host a Supper in the Sukkah on Sunday, October 11. And on Sunday, October 18, there will be a visit to several artists in their studios as well as a gallery visit, all located in one building, allowing participants to wander in and out at their own pace — and to have a nosh and to socialize along the way.

The Food Pantry Needs YOU To Support IT

Every Friday afternoon throughout the summer, the Food Pantry distributed packages of food to the hungry poor of our neighborhood.

The High School students who man the Food Pantry need our continuing help to feed the ever increasing numbers of people who come to the Pantry for help.

In fact, the Food Pantry needs all of us to support it either with a check or with canned or packaged food or both. Checks should be made out to Park Avenue Synagogue and sent to the synagogue, 50 East 87th St., New York, N.Y. 10128, attention Food Pantry. Non-perishable food, Kosher please, can be left at the Reception Desk.

No one should go hungry in this land of plenty.

L'SHANAH TOVAH TIKATAVU
May you be inscribed for a year of health and happiness

SIMHAT TORAH HONOREES ANNOUNCED

Selihot Service Marks Approach of High Holy Days

The Selihot Service, with its theme of repentance and renewal, serves as a reminder to the Jewish people to prepare themselves for the approach of the High Holy Day season.

The service will take place on Saturday, September 19 at 10 p.m. Prior to the service, at 8:15 p.m., the congregation is invited to a coffee hour after which Rabbi Harlan J. Wechsler will deliver the Selihot lecture at 9 p.m. on "Pietistic Repentance," an examination of the unusual penitential writings of late 12th and 13th century German Jewish Hassadism. This little known movement was dedicated to radical changes in human consciousness and actions.

Following the lecture and just before the start of the service itself, the Synagogue Choir accompanied by our organist Neil Robinson will present a choral meditation.

Hebrew Crash Course Begins September 9

Eight sessions is all the time needed by Master Teacher Vivian Finkel to teach you to read the Mahzor, the High Holy Day Prayerbook. Guaranteed!

Don't feel too comfortable during the High Holy Day services because you don't feel familiar with the prayerbook? Help is at hand in the Hebrew Crash Course.

The course will meet on Wednesday, September 9, Thursday, September 10, Monday, September 14, Tuesday, September 15, Wednesday, September 16, Thursday, September 17, Monday, September 21 and Tuesday, September 22, from 7:30-9 p.m.

The course is given under the auspices of the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies.

Charles Bennet, Joanne V. Davis, Ray L. Treiger To Be Honored During Simhat Torah Services

It is a tradition in our congregation to single out and honor three members during services on Simhat Torah who have over time served the synagogue and the Jewish community with great devotion.

The officers of the congregation have chosen for this distinct honor this year Charles Bennet, Joanne V. Davis and Ray L. Treiger.

Mr. Bennet, who will celebrate his 85th birthday, and 60th wedding anniversary this year, joined the synagogue 50 years ago. His son, Philip, and his daughter, Carol, attended the Religious School and Philip was Bar Mitzvah and Carol confirmed. He, and his wife, Lillian, consider Park Avenue Synagogue their second home. He has assumed many positions at the synagogue: President of Men's Club, Chairman of the Scholarship Committee of the School Board, committee member and fund raiser for the Jewish Theological Seminary Dinner and presently the chairman of the Retirees Club. He and his wife attend services weekly and can be called upon at any time for their assistance on any synagogue project.

Mrs. Davis and her husband, Mort, and their three children, Gabrielle, Deborah and Joshua, joined the synagogue 12 years ago and immediately became a part of the life of the congregation. She has served as a co-chairman of the Seminary Dinner and was a committee member of several of the grand celebrations of the synagogue — dinner dances, centennial celebration, Rabbi and Mrs. Nadich's retirement party. She is a past president of Parents Association and a member of the Women's Evening Group. She chaired the Goals Committee of the School Board, an ad hoc com-

Praying Together

It is with a great deal of excitement that I begin the New Year as Rabbi of Park Avenue Synagogue.

I look forward to meeting and greeting each and every one of you as we come together as a congregation to pray on these High Holy Days. As I look to this coming year of endeavor together, I pray that we all shall be blessed with happiness and good health and, since Rosh Hashanah is the ecumenical festival par excellence, peace for all mankind.

It occurs to me that although prayer is the central motif of this sacred season, we, as Jews, as a religious community, as a "people of the book," think we do not have the need for prayer as much as may be expected by others.

For many years I have wondered why it is that other nations and their rulers give thanks to God with religious services on their national day. The Queen of England attends thanksgiving services of all kinds in St. Paul's Cathedral. Islamic leaders are always giving thanks for one event or another. European prime ministers and monarchs are often to be seen at church services.

Historically, Israeli statesmen were not seen in Synagogue even on Israel's Independence Day. This changed during the premiership of Menachem Begin. Wherever Mr. Begin went he attended services. Kosher meals were arranged for him at 10 Downing Street, Buckingham Palace, the residence of Mr. Ceaucescu in Romania, etc.

Abraham Joshua Heschel taught us that we have to pray even when we don't feel like it. Just as an athlete or musician must train and practice each day for the big event, we too must pray, so that we remain "in shape" and prepared, when we really need it.

I wish you all a sweet, successful year. May all our prayers be answered for good.

— David H. Lincoln

SALUTE TO ISRAEL PARADE 1987

On Sunday, May 17, 1987 a proud delegation of over 80 Park Avenue Synagogue school children, teachers, parents and congregants carried the Park Avenue Synagogue banner up Fifth Avenue in the Salute to Israel Parade. Wearing T-Shirts that said "Park Avenue Synagogue" and pictured with a portrait of Ben Gurion, the marchers saluted the 100th anniversary of Ben Gurion's birth. The High School students pulled a float, made by them, which showed a life size Ben Gurion on horseback. Many marchers carried lambs made by the Elementary School students as a salute to Sde Boker, the Kibbutz located in the Negev which was the home of Ben Gurion in his retirement. Join in the excitement and the fun. Plan now to be in the line of march for the next Salute to Israel Parade on Sunday, May 15, 1988.

In Celebration of the High Holy Days

In Our Homes

Rosh Hashanah is both a solemn and a festive occasion. Its joy is spiritually disciplined by the sacred traditions of home and synagogue. Although the observance of the High Holy Days is centered in the synagogue, it is in the home where family members prepare to meet the New Year in a spirit of faith and in a mood conducive to prayer and soul-searching.

White is thought of as the color which symbolizes purity and joy. Thus the table is set with a white tablecloth and flowers, candles and wine. Round hallot, symbolizing a full round year, apples and a dish of honey for a sweet year complete with the symbolic representations on the holiday table.

The family gathers together for the lighting of the candles and kiddush which precedes the festive meal on both nights of Rosh Hashanah. The following blessings are recited over the candles:

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, whose mitzvot add holiness to our lives and who gave us the mitzvah to kindle light for the Festival.

Blessed are Thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has kept us in life, preserved us and enabled us to reach this season.

After the Rosh Hashanah kiddush, the Motzi is recited over the round hallot.

Blessed are Thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

Then all the members of the family dip the apple in honey and recite the following blessing and prayer:

Yehi ratzon milefanekhah Adonai Eloheinu v'Elohei avoteinu, shetehadesh aleinyu shanah tovah umetukah.

May it be Thy Will, O Lord our God, to renew unto us a happy and sweet New Year.

After the morning services of Rosh Hashanah, a festive meal is also eaten, preceded by the daytime kiddush below and the Motzi:

Tiku vahodesh shofar, bakeseh l'yom hageni, ki hok l'Yisrael hu, mishpat l'Elohey Yaakov.

Barukh Atah Adonai Eloheinu Melekh Ha-Olam, borei pri hagafen.

The greeting on the Rosh Hashanah is L'Shanah

Tovah Tikatavu — May you be inscribed for a good year.

Erev Yom Kippur

Yom Kippur is the one religious occasion which is observed entirely in the synagogue, but the meal which precedes the fast on Erev Yom Kippur is intended to be a spiritual experience for the entire family. The meal is eaten early so that the family can be in synagogue before sundown.

Following the Birkat haMazon — the grace after meals — the holiday candles are lit and following blessings are recited:

Barukh Atah Adonai Eloheinu Melekh Ha-olam, asher kideshanu betmitzvotav vetzivanu lehadlik ner shel Yom Ha-Kippurim.

Blessed are Thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has sanctified us by Thy Commandments and has commanded us to kindle the Yom Kippur lights.

Blessed are Thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has kept us in life, preserved us and enabled us to reach this season.

Fasting

Although children are not obligated to fast until they are Bar/Bat Mitzvah age, it is a tradition that they do observe the fast in part, to the extent they are able.

Self-denial in food and other physical pleasure is part of the tradition of this "Sabbath of Sabbaths." However, Jewish law and tradition state that the maintenance of life and health is a prime religious duty. If a person is ill or weak, it is the obligation of the individual to consult a physician on the wisdom of fasting.

Memorial Lights

It is a custom to light a Memorial Light for the deceased in each family. Memorial Lights must be lit before the holiday candles are lit.

Blessing The Children

It is a tradition that before leaving for the Kol Nidre service, parents bless their children by placing their hands on the head of each one. Such blessings are introduced by the following prayer, to which parents can add words of their own, appropriate for the age and needs of each child:

For Sons: May God make you a true, faithful and honorable son of Israel as were Ephraim and Menasseh, the sons of Joseph.

For Daughters: May God make you a faithful and honorable daughter of Israel as were our mothers, Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel and Leah.

Forgiveness

At this time, just before leaving the house to attend the Kol Nidre service, members of the family ask each other for forgiveness for the wrongs or the hurts they have done, knowingly or unknowingly, during the year.

In Our Congregation Sharing The Holidays

It is nice to think of the congregation as our extended family and it is in this spirit that the Holiday Sharing Committee is reaching out once again to the congregation and asking members to identify themselves to the committee, either as wishing to invite a fellow congregant who is alone at holiday time or to be an invitee. A call to the Synagogue Office during business hours, 369-2600, is all that is necessary for you to do. The committee will do the rest.

Shabbat Shuvah

The Sabbath that falls between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur is called Shabbat Shuvah from the Haftarah portion of that Sabbath which begins with word Shuvah meaning 'return' (repent). At 5 p.m. on Shabbat Shuvah, September 26, Rabbi Wechsler will deliver a lecture on "The Laws of Repentance According to Maimonides."

For the Hearing Impaired

Through the generosity of Mrs. Samuel Wimpfheimer it is now possible for those who are hearing impaired to use head sets while attending services. Please inform the Synagogue Office if you wish to avail yourself of this convenience.

Remember Soviet Jewry

The Coalition to Free Soviet Jews is seeking the assistance of Jews everywhere in their efforts to gain the release of those Jews who wish to leave the Soviet Union.

As we dip our apple into honey, let us add this new prayer as our thoughts travel the miles to our Soviet Brethren:

"May it be Your will to bless Soviet Jews with the sweetness of freedom."

Celebrating Sukkot

Come decorate the Ritter Sukkah! Come when you can. Come with your children/grandchildren. All are welcome to participate in this joyous mitzvah of decorating the Sukkah. Come on Sunday, October 4, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., on Monday, October 5 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., on Tuesday, October 6 from 11 a.m. until completion.

Now is also the time to make your reservations to EAT in the Ritter Sukkah. See page 6 for details. As space is limited, all reservations will be honored on a first come, first serve basis.

Cantor Kula will be pleased to take your order for your purchase of an Etrug and Lulav. Call him today at the synagogue — 369-2600.

Parents MUST make advance reservations for their children. Please call School Office by Monday, September 14 to reserve a place for your children in either or both of these programs.

Invitation To Join Mission To Poland and Israel

"Come along with us" is the invitation of fellow congregant Joyce Arnoff Cohen who is leading a UJA/Federation Study Mission to Poland and Israel from Sunday, October 25 to Friday, November 6, 1987.

Joyce, a trustee of Park Avenue Synagogue, is a vice president and chairman for Community Organizations of UJA/Federation of New York. She and her Mission co-chairman, Richard L. Kay, have made a special effort to make the content of this trip extraordinary.

Inquiries are invited. Call Joyce at 836-1763. Shalom!!

Project Dorot Seeks Volunteers

Project Dorot, an organization which assists elderly Jews living on the Upper West Side, is seeking volunteers to help with its annual Rosh Hashanah Food Package Delivery service.

On Sunday, September 20, between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., at Congregation Ansche Chesed, 251 West 100th St., volunteers are needed to deliver holiday food packages while visiting with an elderly Jewish person who is alone.

Please call Project Dorot, 769-2850, to let them know to expect you. It is a mitzvah.

Notes From The Library

The Rothschild Library will reopen on Monday, September 14 at 3 p.m. Please return all books taken out on summer loan at that time. If you wish to return books before September 14, please leave them at the Reception Desk of the Synagogue.

The Sunday hours will resume on Sunday, September 20, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The Library will be closed on Wednesday, September 23 and Thursday, September 24 in observance of Rosh Hashanah.

The library thanks the Hon. and Mrs. Louis I. Kaplan for the donation of the following books given in honor of their grandchildren, Rachel Elizabeth and David Alexander:

Auerbacher, I Am A Star.

Chaikin, Exodus.

Ganz, The Terrible Wonderful Day.

The Gift That Grew.

Schwartz, Oma and Bobo.

Sherman, Monday In Odessa.

An Open Letter From Cantor David Lefkowitz

Dear Friends,

I have just returned from the Cantors Assembly 40th annual convention, held this year in Israel. I am filled with that special spirit that one can experience only in Israel. Let me urge those of you who have not been to Israel recently and those of you who have never been there, to visit Israel frequently in order to replenish your Jewish spirit.

At the convention we were joined by hundreds of cantors, Jewish musicians and lay persons from many parts of the world who came to Jerusalem to celebrate the song of Judaism. How wonderful it was to be united as Jews, with none of the artificial political differences that sometimes try to divide us.

Among my most moving experiences was worshipping on Shabbat in the Great Synagogue in Jerusalem. How stirring it was to realize that in Israel a great cantor and a large choir are davening with the authentic sounds of our People, in a musical fashion that is warm and tasteful, with involved congregants that crowd to capacity this beautiful, massive synagogue.

Shortly before my return, I purchased a new recording (which I highly recommend) of High Holy Day music from the Koenigsberg Tradition. The city of Koenigsberg in East Prussia had been an important center of the Jewish Enlightenment. The soloist, Naftali Herstik, is the same cantor from the Great Synagogue of Jerusalem, but the music is totally different. The recording fascinated me because the Koenigsberg Tradition formed the early musical structure of the Park Avenue Synagogue, largely through the ministry of Cantor Abraham Sukoening, the predecessor of Hazzan David Puttermann, who brought that tradition to our congregation. It is old music with great dignity, and it led me to imagine the sounds of our shul several generation ago.

— David Lefkowitz

mittee charged with re-examining the structure and curriculum of our schools and she was instrumental in the issuance of a three part report detailing the findings of the committee. Her children celebrated their Bar/Bat Mitzvahs with the congregation.

In the eight years Ray Treiger, his wife, Nancy, and his three children, Kim, Brent and Betsy, have been members of the synagogue family, they, too, have become a vital part of our congregation. He has served as an officer of the congregation in two capacities: Assistant Treasurer and Secretary. He is a member of the College Liaison Committee, the Shabbat Dinner Committee and a member of the outstanding male chorus line in the 1986 Purimspiel. He also shares with others the duties of Hazzan at the Thursday morning minyan.

Simhat Torah is Friday, October 16. Following services, a buffet lunch will be served on the Lower Level in honor of our honorees, to which the congregation is cordially invited.

Rabbi Wechsler Joins Community Study Program At 92nd St. Y

Rabbi Wechsler will participate in a program of communal study at the 92nd St. Y on Tuesday, September 15 at 8 p.m. The program, entitled "Community Study," brings together three rabbis to teach and analyze a traditional text, each from his own perspective. Joining Rabbi Wechsler will be Rabbi Stanley Davids of Central Synagogue and Rabbi Jacob J. Schacter of The Jewish Center.

Community Study will focus on the text of the Kol Nidre. In addition to discussing the literal meaning of this central prayer of the High Holiday liturgy, the three rabbis will examine its broader theological meaning and significance.

Tickets for Community Study at the 92nd St. Y are $9 each and may be obtained either from the Y Box Office, Lexington Avenue at 92nd St., or by calling Y-CHARGE at 996-1100.

Cantor Kula At Your Service To Check Mezuzot, Tefillin To Buy Etrog & Lulav

It is a tradition at this time of the year to inspect the scrolls inserted into the mezuzot and tefillin to make sure that they are still in proper condition for use.

Also, it is not too soon to place your order for your own Etrog and Lulav for use during the holiday of Sukkot.

If you wish to have your mezuzah and tefillin checked as well as to order your Etrog and Lulav, please call Cantor Kula at the Synagogue, 369-2600.

Couples Club

Other planned events include ballroom dancing in January, a Friday evening Service in February, a pre-Passover Kosher Wine Tasting in March, a program at the Jewish Museum in May and a picnic at the Bronx Zoo in June.

The highlight of the year may well be the Art Show and Sale, co-chaired by Sandy Merrill and Joanna Slevin, to take place in April. Volunteers are being sought to work on this large and enthusiastic committee.

For more information about membership, committee work or to place your reservation to attend an event, please call the Synagogue Office and leave a message. Your call will be returned by one of the members of the Executive Committee.

Dr. Gladys Rosen Speaks At WEG Open Meeting

Dr. Gladys Rosen

The Women's Evening Group has invited Dr. Gladys Rosen—historian, author and lecturer—to speak on "Prominent Jewish Women in American History" at its initial open meeting of the fall season on Monday, September 14 at 7:30 p.m.

It should be noted that the open meetings of the Women's Evening Group are for everyone—men as well as women.

Dr. Rosen appears often on radio and television as a guest or interviewer on programs concerning Jewish education, history, women and the family. She is a noted authority on these subjects and has written and lectured widely on these topics.

Once again, the Women's Evening Group will reward its members who have renewed their annual membership as well as those who have joined the group by September 14 with the opportunity to participate in a raffle drawing in the course of the evening. Prize: dinner for two at DIVA, the elegant Kosher Italian restaurant on East 81st St.

We Take Pride In:

Martin J. Bienenstock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Bienenstock, whose book Bankruptcy Reorganization was published this summer.

Connie Cohen, whose work was on exhibit recently at the Katonah (N.Y.) Gallery.

Judy Katz, whose paintings are on exhibit at the Saugatuck Gallery (Westport, CT) through September 5.

Lawrence Lyttle, son of Mrs. Hanna Lyttle, who served on the Awards Committee of the 1987 Dore Schary Awards for Human Relations in Film and Video Productions.

Ellen R. Marram, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Rhea Ruttenberg, whose photo appeared on the cover of Business Week and who was the subject of the cover story on "Corporate Women: What It Takes To Get To The Top."

Barbara Goldsmith Perry, who was elected a member of the Board of Trustees of the New York Public Library.

Martha K. Selig, who was lauded for her leadership as the Executive Director of the Scheuer Family Foundation upon her retirement, but who will continue to serve as a consultant to the Foundation.

Dr. Livia Strauss, our Educational Director, who has been appointed chairperson of the Editorial Committee of the Coalition for the Advancement of Jewish Education [CAGE] News Magazine.

An Open Letter To Parents

The New Year is approaching and the start of the new school year makes it an appropriate time to reflect on our commitment to the education of our children at Park Avenue Synagogue. It seems a good time to renew our commitment as parents to supporting our children's religious education and to letting our children see that support.

Parents Association seeks to serve the needs of our children, parent body and school through a variety of programs. Please demonstrate your support of our schools by joining in our programs in this coming year.

Our first event will take place on SUNDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 13 from 7 to 8:30 p.m., when you are cordially invited to meet your children's teachers and each other over dessert and coffee. On MONDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 19 at 8 p.m., you are invited to meet Rabbi David H. Lincoln, Rabbi Harlan J. Wechsler and Dr. Livia Strauss, our new Educational Director, at our FIRST discussion meeting of the year.

We hope to see you often in the coming year. Please let your commitment to your children's religious education be reflected in your strong support of our efforts.

With best wishes,

Dorothy Denburg

President, Parents Association

SCHOOL NEWS

High School

The Park Avenue Synagogue High School invites ALL students of High School age to join its programs either as an enrolled student or as a guest at our special sessions. Call the School Office, 369-2600, for more information or stop in at the High School Office on the Fourth Floor. The High School offers retreats, summer programs and youth group activities as well as academic classes.

The High School curriculum is based on the suggestions of students, educators and parents and is geared to meet the needs of our students and to investigate the Jewish attitudes and response to contemporary issues.

The school also assumes an active role in Tikkun Olam, in changing those things which are not right in our surroundings. Our students man the Food Pantry, assist Project Ezra and participate in projects like helping to construct the Sukkah at the Jewish Home and Hospital for the Aged.

Religious School

The Mazer Schol of Religious Studies will introduce a number of parent-student education programs this year in response to a felt need of our community. Programs will be offered at various times in order to accomodate business and weekend schedules.
